Numb. 8992.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday September 25, to Saturday September 29. 1750.

Conſtantinople, Auguſt 25.

WE have had ſome Time ago Advice, which is now confirmed, that one Georgia Khan, a Chriſtian Georgian, is in Arms on the Frontiers of Perſia, at the Head of 30,000 Men, and that under the Pretence of ſupporting the Schach, he has taken Poſſeſſion of ſeveral Towns in that Kingdom, as Teflis, Erivan, &c. and it is aſſured he continues extending himſelf towards the Caſpian Sea.

Petersbourg, September 10. Yeſterday her Imperial Majeſty, accompanied by the Knights of the Order of St. Alexander Newski, in their proper Habits, went to the Monaſtery of that Name, and aſſiſted at Divine Service, which was performed there on occaſion of its being the Anniverſary of the Inſtitution of that Order; after which her Majeſty honoured the Knights with her Company at Dinner in the Great Hall of the Monaſtery, and at Night there was a grand Ball at Court; but her Majeſty did not name any new Knights as was expected. Count Lynar, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Denmark to this Court, has deferred his Departure from hence for that Kingdom till the Seaſon comes on for the making uſe of Sledges.

Naples, Sept. 10. The Maſter of a French Ship coming from Salonica reports, that being in the Port of Malta about three Weeks ago, he perceived at ſome Diſtance from thence three large Ships, ſteering their Courſe towards the Levant; and though he was not able to diſtinguiſh exactly what Ships they were, on Account of their Flags being carried very low, yet to all Appearance they were the Emperor's three Men of War which ſailed ſome Time ago from the Port of Leghorn. The Quarantine which this Court required to be rigorouſly obſerved by all Ships without Exception, that touched at the Port of Leghorn, and afterwards came hither, is now conſiderably reduced.

Parma, Sept. 16. The Court is expected to return hither about the Beginning of next Month, where they propoſe to reſide during the Winter; and in the Spring their Highneſſes the Duke and Dutcheſs intend going to Placentia, in order to be preſent at the holding of the Fair. The Regiment in Garriſon in this City paſſed laſt Week in Review before the Commiſſaries appointed for that Purpoſe.

Milan, Sept. 19. We learn from Barcelona, that there appeared off that Port, at the Beginning of this Month, a Galliot, and two other Barbary Corſairs; the firſt of which advanced even to the Mouth of the Elbe, where ſhe landed ſome Men, who ſet Fire to ſeveral little Huts belonging to Fiſhermen; but that they had been driven off by ſome Troops which were ſent thither for that Purpoſe.

Madrid, Sept. 21. Their Catholick Majeſty's Journey to Old Caſtile, to pay their Devotion to S^ta^ Tereſa, is fixed for the 5th of next Month, from whence they will return directly to the Eſcurial, to paſs there the uſual Seaſon. There is Advice from Cadiz, that the Galga, a Regiſter Ship, arrived in that Bay the 14th Inſtant from Vera Cruz, where ſhe left ſeveral others ready to ſail for Spain, all of them richly laden: This Ship brings about a Million of Dollars in Money, Cochineal and Indigo.

Bern, Sept. 23. The extreme bad Weather we have had in theſe Parts has been fatal to ſeveral Diſtricts in this Country, and particularly laſt Week to Neufchaſtel, from the overflowing of a ſmall Rivulet, which, after ſupplying that Town with Water, runs into the Lake: This Torrent, from the vaſt Quantity of Rain, ſwelled at that Rate, that the lower Part of the Town was Twenty two Feet under Water, to the unſpeakable Damage of a vaſt Quantity of Goods in the ſeveral Shops and Warehouſes. This was not the only Miſchief, but the Rains falling with the utmoſt Violence, carried away all the Vines in the Neighbouring Mountains, and the very Earth on which they grew, leaving nothing but the bare Rocks; and the few that eſcaped were utterly deſtroyed three Days after by a violent Storm of Hail. By theſe two Accidents ſeveral Families are ruined, and the Loſs, together with the neceſſary Repairs for preventing the like again, are computed to amount to 35,000 l. Sterling. We have had nothing of this Kind here, but the Seaſon has proved ſo unhealthy, from the frequent and ſudden Changes of Weather, that it has occaſioned ſeveral Diſtempers, and particularly Fluxes, which are very rife, and daily carry off Numbers of People, particularly amongſt the poorer Sort, and young Children, both in this Town and the Neighbouring Villages.

Vienna, Sept. 23. M. Hautefort, Ambaſſador from his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty to this Court, is arrived at Strasburg in his Way hither; and Count Kaunitz, their Imperial Majeſties Ambaſſador to the Court of France, intends ſetting ſetting out for Paris on Friday Evening or Saturday Morning at fartheſt. M. d'Atzlor, Miniſter Plenipotentiary from the King of Spain to this Court, ſet out ſome Time ago from Madrid; and M. Eſterhaſi, who is to go to that Court, has already ſent away ſome Part of his Equipage, and is getting every Thing ready for his Journey. The Buſineſs of Hohenlohe draws towards a Concluſion, and will be finally decided either this Week or the Beginning of the next.

Vienna, Sept. 26. This Morning Count Kaunitz ſet out for Paris, and the French Ambaſſador is expected here in a few Days. M. Burmannia, the Dutch Envoy, having obtained Leave from the States General to make a Tour into Holland about his own private Affairs, ſet out this Morning in his Way to that Country. Count Konigſegg Erps was ſome Days ago declared Land Marſhal of Auſtria, in the Room of Count Ferdinand Harrach, who arrived here this Morning from Milan. It is generally believed that the Office of Vice-Preſident of the Council of Flanders, which M. Konigſegg formerly had, will not be filled up.

Dreſden, Sept. 25. 'Tis aſſured that the Edict which was publiſhed laſt Year concerning Luxury, will be repealed, or at leaſt ſuſpended for ſome Years, on Occaſion of the Difficulties which ariſe relating to the carrying of it into Execution, on Account of Commerce. The laſt Advices from Warſaw ſay, that the Heyducks continue to make Incurſions on the Frontiers of the Ukraine; but that ſuch neceſſary Precautions had been taken, in Concert with the Court of Ruſſia, that they flattered themſelves they ſhould ſoon have it in their Power to put a Stop to the Heyducks plundering of that Country for the Future.

Duſſeldorp, Sept. 28. The Elector Palatin is returned to Manheim from the Tour he lately made to Deuxponts. On Tueſday laſt the Deputies of the States of Burgues and Juliers opened their Aſſembly with the uſual Ceremonies. Since the 15th Inſtant, there have paſſed by here, and this Neighbourhood, upwards of 800 Horſes to remount the Regiments of Imperial Cavalry quartered in the Low Countries.

Berlin, Sept. 29. His Pruſſian Majeſty came to this Place laſt Sunday Night, and went back to Potzdam this Morning. The Queen Mother is much better, and laſt Night came from Mon Bijou to her Apartments in the Palace of Berlin, for the Winter Seaſon. The Margravine of Bareith is ſtill here, but 'tis ſaid that her Royal Highneſs will return to Bareith in a few Days.

Copenhagen, Sept. 29. The Court remains at Friedensburg, and it is uncertain when they will return to Town, ſince not only the Small Pox, but the Dyſentery and Purple Fever, not unuſual at this Time of the Year, are now very frequent here, and carry off great Numbers of the lower Sort of People.

Hambourg, Sept. 30. We continue to receive very favourable Accounts of his Swediſh Majeſty's preſent State of Health, notwithſtanding the dangerous Condition he has been ſo often thought in. The Mortality among the Cattle having manifeſted itſelf throughout moſt Parts of Sweden, publick Prayers have been ordered in all the Churches, in Hopes to turn aſide ſo terrible a Scourge. Several Officers of the Regiments lately arrived in Sweden from Stralſund, are come up to Stockholm, to endeavour to better the Condition of their private Men, who, not accuſtomed to the Climate, nor to the Diet of the Country, die away in great Numbers.

Bonn, Oct. 1. They have already begun to get in the Vintage in ſeveral Places in this Neighbourhood, but there does not appear to be ſo great a Quantity of Wine as was expected. The Sickneſs amongſt the Horned Cattle continuing to make great Havock, not only in this Electorate, but even in the Dutchies of Juliers and Burgues, publick Prayers are ordered to be put up next Sunday, for Forty Hours, in order to beſeech the Almighty to deliver us from this dreadful Calamity.

Hague, Oct. 6. M. de St. Conteſt, Ambaſſador from the French King, arrived here on Saturday laſt, the 3d Inſtant, with a numerous Retinue. We hear from Turin, that M. Verelſt, the States General's Miniſter, arrived there the 18th of laſt Month. Lieutenant General Hop, the Republick's Envoy Extraordinary at his Britannick Majeſty's Court, is returned to the Hague from Hanover, but laſt from Loo, and is preparing to ſet out ſhortly for London. The Letters from Zealand inform us, that M. Vrybergen, Lieutenant General of Horſe in the Republick's Service, died lately at Zurickzee.

LES MOEURS; or, MANNERS: Accurately Translated from the French. Wherein the Principles of Morality, or Social Duties, viz. Piety, Wisdom, Prudence, Fortitude, Justice, Temperance, Love, Friendship, Humanity, &c. &c. are described in all their Branches; the Obligations of them shown to consist in our Nature, and the Enlargement of them strongly enforc'd. Here Parents are taught, that, giving Birth to a Child, scarcely entitles them to that honourable Name, without a strict Discharge of Parental Duties; the Friend will find, there are a Thousand other Decorums, besides the doing of a Favour, to entitle him to the tender Name of Friend; and the Good-natur'd Man will find, he ought to extend that Quality beyond the Bounds of his own Neighbourhood or Party.

The Whole wrote in a Manner entirely New and Entertaining, and enliven'd with real Characters, drawn from Life, and fitted to instill the Principles of all social Virtues into tender Minds.
